

Family Communication Policy

In our Service, Family participation is an important part of making the Service a true part of the community. We believe in creating an environment that is welcoming and inclusive and supports a sense of belonging for children, families and educators.

National Quality Standards (NQS)

Quality Area 6: Partnership with families and community
6.1.1	There is an effective enrolment and orientation process for families.
6.1.2	Families have opportunities to be involved in the service and contribute to service decisions
6.1.3	Current information about the service is available to families.
6.2.1	The expertise of families is recognised and they share in decision making about their child's learning and wellbeing
6.2.2	Current information is available to families about community services and resources to support parenting and family wellbeing
6.3.1	Links with relevant community and support agencies are established and maintained.
6.3.2	Continuity of learning and transitions for each child are supported by sharing relevant information and clarifying responsibilities.
6.3.3	Access to inclusion and support assistance is facilitated
6.3.4	The service builds relationships and engages with their local community.

PURPOSE

We encourage family participation and open communication within our Service. Families are invited to attend parent information meetings, and assist with projects which works in collaboration with our open door policy.

We aim to ensure open communication is concurrent through the enrolment and orientation process, policy review, feedback forms, parent committee, daily program, documentation, formal and informal meetings, emails and conversations.

SCOPE

This policy applies to children, families, staff, management and visitors of the Service.

IMPLEMENTATION

We understand the primary influence that families have in their children's lives, and that effective relationships between educators and families are fundamental to achieve quality outcomes for children. Community partnerships that focus on active communication, consultation and collaboration also contribute to children's learning and wellbeing.

We will provide regular information about the Service and continuous prospects for families to contribute in our curriculum.

Management will ensure:

- Families are aware of our open door, unless such entry would pose a risk to the safety of children/educators or breach court orders regarding access to children.
- Educators provide information to families regarding the content and operation of the educational program; in relation to their child and that a copy of the educational program is available for inspection at the education and care service.

Kekeco Childcare Pty. Ltd.

- Families have access to their child's developmental records outlining their strengths, needs and interests and developmental progress against the framework.
- A weekly menu which accurately describes the food and beverages provided each day is displayed in a place accessible to parents
- Families are notified of any incident, injury, trauma or illness that occurs for their child whilst at the Service.
- The early childhood environment has an administrative space which is adequate for the purpose of consulting with parents and for conducting private conversations and meetings
- Families are notified of changes to Service policies and National Regulations
- The Education and Care Services National Regulations 2014 is available for parents to access
- The enrolment and orientation process provides families with information about the philosophy, policies and practices of the Service
- A Parent Committee is to encourage family involvement in the Service.

Nominated Supervisor will:

- Inform families about the processes for providing feedback and making complaints.
- Be available for families on arrival and pick up to pass on feedback and information about their child's participation in the curriculum
- Encourage families to be involved in the curriculum, providing feedback, visiting the Service, bringing in items from the home environment and giving feedback on children's emerging interests and needs.
- Endorse continuous open and direct two way communication with families, assisting them to feel associated with their children's experiences, developing trust and collaboration.
- Families are provided with a range of communication methods which will include: emails, verbal communication, communal signage in the Service, newsletters, Daily Report, Family Involvement Wall, sign-in sheets, Notice Board and notes sent home
- A communication book is development with families when required (for example: Behaviour guidance and inclusion support plans)

Families will:

- Provide accurate information on enrolment and medical information forms during the enrolment process and notify educators when any information changes.
- Be requested to contribute to the quality improvement progression within the Service.
- Be encouraged to attend children's excursions to help meet required ratios and to support their children's knowledge of and engagement in their community
- Be invited to assist with working bees held at the service.
- Be invited to family events to be held periodically to help families network and develop friendships in the local community.
- Families will be asked to review the centre policies, children's goals and routines.
- Be asked to complete a 'A Family Weekend' template which is then used in the daily curriculum

Source

- Australian Children's Education & Care Quality Authority. (2014).
- Guide to the Education and Care Services National Law and the Education and Care Services National Regulations 2015,
- ECA Code of Ethics.

Kekeco Childcare Pty. Ltd.

- Guide to the National Quality Standard.
- Early Years Learning Framework for Australia: Belonging, Being and Becoming, 2009
- My Time Our Place
- Raising Children Network – Involving parents in school and child care http://raisingchildren.net.au/articles/involving_parents_in_school_and_childcare.html

Review

Policy Review Date
June 2019